

TOWN AND COUNTRY GARDEN CLUB OF LANCASTER

Tuesday, June 18, 2024 is your opportunity to travel with us to the private garden of Jenny Rose Carey - Northview Gardens in Ambler, PA. We will visit The Rhoads Garden in the afternoon before returning to Lancaster.

Northview is a garden of four-and-a-half acres that contains smaller garden areas within it. Each of these separate areas have a theme or share certain environmental conditions. This allows Jenny to pick a palette of plants that suits the soil, sun and water conditions while also adding the look that she is trying to achieve.

Lunch will be provided at Northview and will include a short lecture by Jenny Rose Carey.

Our afternoon stop will be to The Rhoads Garden, one of Jenny Rose Carey's favorites. The Rhoads Garden is one of the largest horticultural centers in the Delaware Valley. Here you can explore the nursery, greenhouse and gift shop.
